Gentlemen:

May I take this means to seek your advice and help regarding coin collecting? I am just an amateur collector who has started to collect old coins for about three years. If it is not too troublesome, will you kindly extend me your assistance? I shall be grateful for whatever advice and help you may accord me in the form of literature or suggestion along this line.

If there are some publication about old coin collecting, I shall be thankful if you will let me have the names of same.

Thanks again for your kind favor.

Yours sincerely,

Q. S. Leong

Dear Sir:

Responding to your letter of June 1st,
"The Numismatist" is, I believe, such a publication
as you are seeking. I am sending you a sample copy, under separate cover, and if you are interested you may communicate with the publisher and editor, Mr.
Frank G. Duffield, 4215 Fernhill Ave. Baltimore, Md.

Very truly yours,

SN:JG
